1887-1979

Located northeast of Kirksville, six miles east on Route P. When Charles and Mary McClanahan moved into the East Center vicinity, religious services were being held in the school house, so seeing the need of a church and cemetery, Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan donated the land. Mr. McClanahan, Mrs. John Dye, and Mr. Thomas Bullock carried the petition to obtain funds and pledges of labor. Their dream became a reality on April 11, 1887. Mr. and Mrs. John Dye's infant daughter was the first to be buried in the new cemetery on June 8, 1888.

On November 4, 1953 East Center Cemetery Association was organized and donations were accepted from people interested in keeping the cemetery maintained. The first board members were W. R. Fortney, Lawrence McClanahan, J. C. Hodges, and Marlen McClanahan, secretary-treasurer.

On April 6, 1956, the cemetery received a large sum of money from the John Monroe estate for up-keep.

On September 2, 1964, Miss Addie Dunham willed her home in Kirksville to the Association. Proceeds from the sale of this house were to be invested and the interest used for up-keep of the cemetery.

In 1972 the Ross and Flossie Laird estate provided a substantial donation.

There is also a $50.00 up-keep fee for each new grave that is opened.

The cemetery association meeting is held each year on the first Saturday night in April.

Copied and submitted by Mrs. Lawrence McClanahan.
