

MILLER CEMETERY

ADAIR COUNTY, MISSOURI

This cemetery brought to you by Stacy

Frederick Wilson Miller bought land and built a home in Section 21, twp 64, range 16, Adair County, Missouri. The family Miller Cemetery is located near the Adair and Putnam County line several yards north of the old Miller home.

In 1980 Ernest Klockenga owns and lives on the former Miller farm located on a rock road running east and west just north of the Blackbird Creek. The new Klockenga house sits off the road north. The old Miller house was farther north on top of the hill, and the Cemetery is in a wooded area north of it.

Frederick W. Miller and first wife, Sarah Mulanix had seven children, four of whom are buried in the Miller Cemetery. His first wife died before the Miller Cemetery existed and was buried at the Green Grove Cemetery in Adair County.

Frederick W. Miller's second wife was Margaret Collins Morgan. They had six children, two were buried in the family Cemetery beside Frederick and Margaret.

Information on the Miller Cemetery was compiled by Mrs. Duane Montgomery.
