

NOVINGER CEMETERY

ADAIR COUNTY, MISSOURI

This cemetery brought to you by Anna

The Novinger Cemetery is located 1 1/2 miles north of Novinger on Highway 149. The cemetery goes back to 1849. Jonas Shott's first wife Julianna was the first buried there. She died September 26, 1849 at the age of 20, one year after they had emigrated to the Novinger area from Pennsylvania. Through his lifetime Jonas Shott had four more wives, all of whom are buried in the Novinger Cemetery with him. In 1891 a Methodist Church was built at the cemetery and was used for funerals and various meetings. It was torn down in 1974. In 1907 the local miners union added 3 acres to be used for miners burials. It was later donated for public use. There was no organization and graves had been placed in a disorderly manner until 1907 when the Novinger Cemetery Association was formed, but the perpetual care corporation was not formed until 1970. Land has been added from time to time.

The cemetery is well kept and continues to grow. Harry Fallini has been working on updating the plats and supplied those and existing written information. Mamie Baiotto, Bess Mercer, Elizabeth Laughlin, Catherine Reese and Ann Stiglich helped record information from the stones.

There is an unplatted section about 10 lots wide north and south and 22 lots long east and west between the Gashwiler addition and sections A and B.

Red indicates new additions to cemetery list.
