

PAULVILLE CEMETERY

ADAIR COUNTY, MISSOURI

Walker Paul came to Adair County about 1853 from Ralls County, Missouri. About 1855 Mr. Paul laid out the village of Paulville about one and one half miles northeast of the present town of Brashear. In 1872 when the railroad came from Quincy and the town of Brashear was laid out. Mr. Paul had a grist mill on Hog Branch. The village had a public squire, Masonic Lodge, a doctor, blacksmith, hotel, post office, harness shop and a general merchandise store. There was a church and a cemetery. Paulville was a flourishing little village for several years. Paulville ceased to exist. Now all that is left is the cemetery. It is well kept and has a gravel road to the gate
